How Does God Guide Us? - Mark D. Roberts

The truth to which Jesus testifies is the God who is beyond the circumstances of this world and yet always present in the circumstances of this world. Jesus came into the world to tell us about that truth, to show us what it looks like in a human life, and teach us how to be a part of and belong to that truth.

Does it really belong in the Bible? Let us consider while we are at this point, the subject of the Catholic apocrypha, for which they make such great claims; and because of which they deny the Bible in common use by most brethren. 2 Macc 12:38-46 seems to be the principal reason they cling to the apocrypha.

Reasons why the Apocrypha does NOT belong in the Bible!

CHAPTER 3. 1 * See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. a 2 Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed * we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. b 3 Everyone who has this hope ...

CHAPTER 18. Jesus Arrested. * 1 When he had said this, Jesus went out * with his disciples across the Kidron valley to where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. a 2 Judas his betrayer also knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with his disciples. 3 So Judas got a band of soldiers * and guards from the chief priests and the Pharisees and went there with ...

John, CHAPTER 18 | USCCB

Note specifically that the passage does not say those things belong to the community or the government; three times the passage uses the word neighbor (rea) meaning "a person, friend, or fellow." Again, the passage reveals that the ox or donkey is not owned by a government, but by a person, friend, or fellow: that is to whom God says it ...

What Does the Bible Teach in Regard to Property Rights?

Man cannot seek God, unless God himself teaches him; nor find him, unless he reveals himself. God created man in his image, that he might be mindful of him, think of him, and love him. The believer does not seek to understand, that he may believe, but he believes that he may understand: for unless he believed he would not understand.

The earliest written form of the Germanic word God comes from the 6th-century Christian Codex Argenteus. The English word itself is derived from the Proto-Germanic * gudan. The reconstructed Proto-Indo-European form * ghu-tó-m was likely based on the root * ghau(ə)-, which meant either "to call" or "to invoke". The Germanic words for God were originally neuter—applying to both genders ...

The church is a praying, singing, preaching, witnessing body. We witness to the in-breaking of God's reign of love, justice, beauty, and abundance in time and space. We lament brokenness, evil, and violence. We proclaim that these dastardly realities are ending even as we groan and press toward God's redemption of humanity and all of creation.

What Does the Bible Say About Morals?

9 Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation. 10 For God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown for his name in serving the saints, as you still do. 11 And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, 12 so that you may not ...

What does Hebrews chapter 6 mean? | BibleRef.com

Although atheists contend that God does not exist and agnostics allege that there is a very high probability that He does not exist, theism is the rational belief that there is a God. A sincere pursuer of truth who follows the available evidence will come to the logical conclusion that God exists.
